Sir, paragraph 26 says:

> "The Committee recommends that the copies of the Annual Reports and Audited Accounts of public undertakings established by the Acts of Parliament or Government companies under the Companies Act, 1956 or Societies registered under the Societies Registration Act of 1860 or any other organisation/board for which Annual Reports, etc. are to be placed on the Table of the Houses of Parliament, together with the Report Review/comments of the Auditor and Comptroller and Auditor General of India wherever necessary and the Report/Review of the Government should be laid within nine months of closure of the accounts. The timely laying of these Papers on the Table of the House apprises Parliament of the functioning of the public enterprises."

Sir, this is mandatory that the Accounts will be placed before the Parliament within nine months of the closure of the Accounts. That means, the Accounts for the financial year ending on 31st March should be placed before the Parliament in the winter session of that year.

Sri, the second thing is, paragraph 27 says:

> "In case of delay in reports for periods up to 31st March, a statement explaining the reason for delay should also be laid on the Table of the House along with the documents. If there is likely to be a delay in laying a Paper within the stipulated period, the administrative Ministry should approach the Committee sufficiently in advance for extension of time by explaining the reasons for doing so."

Sir, in the case of item I(1)(i), the Annual Report and Accounts of the Nuclear Power Corporation of India should have been placed before the House in the winter session of 1994. Now it is already March, 1995. So, there is a delay. There is no statement about this delay. Then, Sir, in another case, there was a delay of over 18 years, and the Paper was laid on the Table of this House on the 24th of this month.

Sir, my request to the hon. Ministers is that they should comply with the recommendations of the Committee.

THE VICE-CHAIRMAN (SHRI V. NARAYANASAMY): About the point which you have raised, in respect of Item No. 1 which was laid on the Table of the House by Bhuvnesh Chaturvediji, there is already a statement giving reasons for the delay. Under item No. I(2), there is a "statement giving reasons for the delay in laying the papers mentioned at (1) above." So, that has been given.

SHRI SARADA MOHANTY: About the Government accepting the report...

THE VICE-CHAIRMAN (SHRI V. NARAYANASAMY): I am talking about that. Moreover, there is a Committee on Papers Laid on the Table. If that Committee gives an opportunity to submit the document by the Ministry and if it is accepted, then it comes to the House. I think the point which was raised by the hon. Member is not in order. Now, Shri Bhuvnesh Chaturvedi, you can lay it on the Table.

SHRI BHUVNESH CHATURVEDI: I have already laid it, Sir.
